New Playground

Members of the city council and the city park and playground commission will hold a joint meeting next Tuesday evening, August 18, to discuss the building program of the South Richmond park. This was decided by the council last night upon recommendation of Councilwoman Mrs. Mattie A. Chandler, following receipt of a communication from the Richmond Park and Playground Commission.

The park and playground commission recommended that the city take the following steps to develop the South Richmond park:

1. Place the sum of $700 in escrow pending condemnation proceedings against C. D. Stanton of Colusa, owner of lot 15 or block 10 in the South Richmond playground site.
2. That the small shingled house on lots 5 and 6 in block 9, be placed for sale at auction.
3. That the landscaping and gardening firm of Ford and McLaren be appointed to draw up plans for the landscape work of the playground for a fee of $75.

The sum of $8,000 now remains in the fund for acquiring and developing the South Richmond playground.

TOWN FATHERS REVOKE PERMIT AS RESULT OF RAID ON CAFE

EL CERRITO, Aug. 10.—The aftermath of the raid that was made on Max's Inn at Stege Junction at an early hour Sunday morning, by the city squad operating under the direction of District Attorney A. B. Tinning, came this evening at the meeting of the town trustees.

On motion of trustee George Conlon, the soft drink permit that had been granted Mrs. E. I. Coyer, as keeper of Max's Inn, under an agreement with the creditors was revoked. City Marshal Forrest Wright was instructed to see that the soft drink ordinance was not violated at the Inn in the future.

Conlon made the statement that place should be closed up, as there were continued violations of the law taking place at the roadhouse.

It is understood that a number of Tinnings men were at Max's Inn for several hours before the raid took place, and liquor flowed freely. Max Sheehan, owner of the place, Orval Coffin, and Ralph Lagarsino, were taken into custody, and appeared before Justice of the Peace Glass at Martinez today. Plead of not guilty were entered, and jury trials demanded. All three of the defendants were released on bail of $500 each.

In the raid, wine, whisky, and gin were seized, and will be used as evidence.

FIRE HYDRANT REQUEST LOST

Petition for a fire hydrant at Humboldt street and Garvin avenue was turned down last night by the city council.

Councilman E. J. Garrard explained that the hydrant would cost probably several thousand dollars, because of the long main that would be required to supply it. On his recommendation the petition was denied.

CROCKETT, Aug. 10.—Tremendous recent increase in the demand for higher education in Crockett has far outstripped the capacity of the John Swett High School here with the result that the school trustees and prominent citizens of Crockett are planning a campaign for the voting of $450,000 in bonds for the building of a new high school.

The proposed new John Swett high school will be a vocational institution equipped with workshop, automobile repairing department, and a department for household economies in addition to the usual subjects embraced in a high school course.

Crockett only recently voted $300,000 in bonds for a new grammar school.

Traver Invites Sciots to Come Here for Meet

Robert N. Traver, Toparch of the Richmond Pyramid No. 42 Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, was guest of honor and chief speaker at the meeting of the Watsonville Pyramid last night.

Traver made his 19th visit to outside pyramids last night. He is inviting all Sciots to accept the hospitality of Richmond for the Supreme Pyramid meet in 1927.

The convention goes to Stockton this year. At that gathering Richmond Sciots will make a strong bid for the convention two years later. Marysville and Eureka are pulling strong for the 1926 gathering.

Traver points out that Richmond is just the proper size to care properly for the Sciots meet. The organization is not so large but the city can accommodate the funmakers well, and Richmond is not large enough to lose the Egyptians.

5,000 Enrolled In Nine Schools

Approximately 5,000 pupils started the new fall term in the public schools of Richmond yesterday. Although no accurate checkup has been made, this number shows a material gain over last year.

The Richmond Union High school has an enrollment of approximately 700, while more than 1,000 are attending Roosevelt Junior high. The remaining 2300 are enrolled in the seven grammar schools of the city.

Kensington Park, between Berkeley country club and Thousand Oaks, has a new grammar school. A new six-room wing for the Fairmont school, El Cerrito, has been provided by the board of education. This addition supplants the one razed by fire last year.

Students Need Transportation

Parents of school children of high school age living on the San Pablo dam road petitioned the high school Board of Education at its meeting last night for some means of transportation to the Union high school.

It was pointed out that there are in the neighborhood of twelve students living in that section of the county who have to be brought to school by the parents themselves.

The board decided to look into the matter, ascertain the number of pupils in the district, and see what may be done toward providing adequate transportation.

Such routine business as the paying of bills, taking care of salaries was transacted at the meeting. All members were present with the exception of William Mason, chairman of the board. UNIVERSAL SERVICE

WORKED TOGETHER

This was announced by authorities today following the return from Los Angeles of Deputy Sheriff J. Joseph. Josephs declared that Schwartz and Gilbert W. Barbe, itinerant pastor of "the great outdoors," who was slain in the Pacific Collapsible company's laboratories, worked side by side and developed a close friendship at San Fernando near Los Angeles four years ago.

HIGHLIGHTS OF DAY

This was one of the sensational developments of the day, which also included the following:

1. Authorities of San Francisco, Oakland and Contra Costa county began a sweeping search for accomplices in the Walnut Creek murder. It is believed that Schwartz was given aid in escaping from the laboratories after setting them on fire.
2. Investigation was made of rumors that Schwartz was involved in a large liquor raiding enterprise.
3. Mrs. Charles Henry Schwartz will receive $25,000 on one insurance policy, but will lose $250,000 on others, made void by the suicide of her husband.
4. Revelations by E. S. Bell, Schwartz' attorney, that Schwartz had taken the name of his brother, Leon Henry Schwartzoff of Germany, for political reasons.

Vocal numbers will be furnished by Richmond's "Barbershop Four." Other music will be furnished by Miss Anne Mitchell and Mrs. Hollis R. Thompson. The Berkeleyites claim several silver-tongued orators, who will discourse on various topics of pertinence to Lionism.

THE BILLION DOLLAR ROAD BILL

In the Saturday Evening Post of July 11, Forrest Crissey has an interesting article on modern highway construction. He asks the question: "Who pays the billion dollar highway bill?"

The problem of who is going to pay for maintaining and rebuilding our roads, not to mention building new ones, is going to become more important each year. An example of the manner in which money is expended on street construction has been witnessed in March, Indiana.

Washington street, in that city, was laid in 1902, and consisted of an eight-inch natural cement concrete base with a sheet asphalt wearing surface. After some 22 years of service it was necessary to rebuild it. It was proposed to remove the old asphalt wearing surface and replace it with material of a similar character.

Instead of following the original plan to utilize the old base for a new wearing surface, a plan was finally adopted to tear up the whole street and relay it with eight inches of concrete. The total cost of the job is estimated at $170,000, whereas, if the old plan of utilizing the original base for a new asphaltic wearing surface had been adopted, it is said that the cost would not have been in excess of $85,000, which would have meant a net saving of about $85,000 on the present price or 50 per cent of the total cost.

This illustration shows who is paying part of the billion dollar road bill and it also shows why they are paying it. As the annual road and street bill becomes larger, it is going to become increasingly necessary to adopt the most business-like methods to secure the maximum results with the taxpayer's dollar. This cannot be done without utilizing in every manner possible old road bases to support a new wearing surface which will carry the traffic.

GET BEHIND TAX REDUCTION PROGRAM

Representatives of 12 western states are meeting in Portland, Oregon, this month, to discuss ways and means of reducing taxation.

Each state representative will bring a report covering activities in his state legislative accomplishments are to be reviewed as part of the program of uniform state legislation governing taxation.

Among the principal subjects to be discussed are: the Indiana plan to appeal from local tax levies and bond issues, the overlap of state and federal inheritance and estate taxes, public debt as it is affected by the serial bond law, proposed uniform state legislation for 1927, methods of presenting tax facts to the public and means of making the state taxpayers' associations more effective.

This is a long step in the right direction. It is only by concerted effort that state and local taxes will finally be reduced.

TIME FOR PEOPLE TO KNOW

Of all the great railroads listed on the New York stock exchange, not one earned six per cent last year above claimed valuation; only eight above five per cent, for the main lines and all their subsidiaries which comprise their total investment. Two roads earned less than one per cent; ten others earned less than three per cent; ten earned between three and four per cent; and the others were between four and five per cent.

Taxes paid amounted to $340,000,000, while the stockholders received only $310,000,000. The striking fact disclosed by this showing is that the owners of the country's transportation system are getting nothing like an adequate return on their investment in them.

And this is the industry that has been willfully misrepresented by political demagogues as guaranteed a profit by the federal government. The figures quoted ought to be convincing of the truth.

DIVERSITY SAFEGUARDS INVESTMENTS

Liberty bond drives during the war and the campaign of public utility companies to sell their securities to employees and customers have done more to educate our people how to make sound investments than any other agency.

Banks are beginning to follow the lead of utility holding companies by organizing separate investment corporations which utilize their funds and savings to buy high grade securities in all parts of the world. These combined securities from the assets of the investment company which offers its stocks or bonds to the public backed by this wide diversity of securities. The idea is old, but the practice is new.

DRESS
Occasions There Are That Call For Something More Festive For The Small Girl Than The Frock That Can Be Tubbed.

THERE'S at least one comfort to the mother of many little daughters nowadays. It may cost a lot to feed 'em and educate 'em and to provide them with suitable d'verson—but it doesn't take much material to make their clothes. So if you sew, the task of dressing your many daughters ought not to cost such an amazing amount. And the more closely you follow the lead of Paris in this regard the less material you will need. The skirts of little American children look positively dowdy after becoming used to the much shorter skirts of French children.

The little frock shown in the sketch, of pure French design, really requires a very, very small piece of material. This is used to make the short gathered skirt, while ribbons of harmonizing tint form the little lattice-work bodice. In this frock the silk is cherry taffeta broadened in silver, while silver ribbons interlace to form the little bodice.

It may seem to you that taffeta silk and silver ribbon are not quite appropriate for the very little girl. You may cling tenaciously to the old-time idea that such a little girl should wear only materials that can be sent to the laundry. But there are occasions that cry for something a little more festive.

We are beginning to realize what you might call the decorative value of our children. Even if we no not permit their meddling in the social life of their elders, we allow them to appear at all sorts of day-time parties. A wedding is hardly complete nowadays without a tiny flower girl or train bearer. At garden parties children are to be seen in picturesque surroundings and quaint frocks in the garden or on the lawn. They are taught when quite young to help hand tea things and other afternoon refreshments, not to take a preoccupied part in the conversation of their mothers and fathers, but to conform to the good old adage that children should be seen and not heard. And we are permitting them to be seen much more than ever before.

PAINTED BALBRIGGAN JUMPERS

WE'RE not painting the lily, nowadays, but we are painting that flat, mottled cloth that looks so much like men's undershirts—balbriggan.

This thin, pliable fabric is well liked for summer sport frocks. And the dressmakers have found it an admirable surface for painted and painted designs.

Sometimes the design is floral—bright red roses, for instance, with brighter green stems.

More often the design is of a futuristic sort—blocks of indeterminate shape, or figures suggesting elephant worked out in triangles.

Jumpers are decorated in this manner more often than anything else.

WITH PEACHES

Delicious Peach Salad.
Pare and cut in half large yellow peaches. Prepare two halves for each plate. Drop two halves into ice water to chill and prevent turning brown. Chop one-half cup mixed nuts, one-half cup fresh or maraschino cherries; mix with mayonnaise. Fill peaches, which have been placed on lettuce, place a puff of thick whipped cream on top and serve very cold.

Peach and Cheese Salad

Two cream cheese, half cup finely chopped nut meats, two tablespoons of cream, half teaspoon of salt, one-quarter teaspoon of paprika; some crisp lettuce leaves; mayonnaise dressing, one teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce. Peel and halve ripe peaches; mash the cheese, add the nuts, cream and seasoning. Spread this mixture between halves of the peaches and chill. Serve on lettuce nests with mayonnaise or French dressing to which a little Worcestershire sauce has been added.

BRICK BUILDING

The making of bricks is very ancient; the case of the Israelites who were compelled to make bricks without straw dates them well back into Egyptian times; the Romans also had brick buildings. The oldest brick building since the ancient times is said to be Hurstmonceux Castle in Sussex, England; it was erected in the reign of Henry VI (1422-1461).

THE LIMITED MAIL

by ELMER E. VANCE

Novel by William Basil Courtney

Copyright, 1925, Warner Bros.
"THE LIMITED MAIL" with Monte Blue, is a dramatization of this story by Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

SYNOPSIS

Jim Fowler, young mail clerk, has wandered aimlessly into the stormy night on learning that his wife has died in giving birth to a boy. Bob Wilson, who had saved the Limited Mail, shields him from harm. Jim is about to dash himself into a crater well when Bob snatches him back. The two fight desperately and Jim is getting the better of his rescuer when his senses return and he hurries into a paroxysm of tears. He is enraged at the babe who caused his loved one's death.

CHAPTER IV

"You probably haven't forgotten, Bob," said Jim one day about three weeks after his wife's funeral, "that I told you I was going away with you—on the road, anywhere, everywhere—just as soon as things here were settled."

Bob nodded from a comfortably indolent position fast upon his back with a humorous foreknowing twinkle in his eye, though his face remained gravely attentive, and he looked at Jim expectantly.

"Well," said Jim honestly and without a trace of sheepishness, "I can't go through with it."

The two men were seated on the neat green lawn of the little postage stamp backyard of the Fowler cottage, in the limpid sunshine of a rare fine day, making woeful efforts to retrieve their boyhood skill at mumble-peg. It was by these little artifices that Bob, in his interest and liking for the slender, almost effeminately intense, mail clerk, had contrived during the acute days of Jim's bereavement to keep him out of dangerous moods of ingrowing melancholic brooding to which he was predisposed.

"I don't know what drove you out to roam, Bob; but I've seen enough of the fine man in you to know that it must have been something big—something that justified you. But I'm not like you. The open, ribbony roads that wind over distant hills don't lure me—even now. But from the wistful longing I've seen in your eyes, sometimes when we've been walking and I've caught you staring off to the horizon, I know they've got a powerful drag for you; and that's made me appreciate what it cost you to stay here—to help me."

"Your chance," said Bob, handing him the rusty penknife, "I missed. It's 'backies' for you this time—you're two ahead of me!"

Jim was not to be distracted. "You're made for that sort of thing," he continued, "I'm not. You're hard. I'm soft."

Bob looked up sharply from his dissembling efforts to smooth down the prickled turf, smiling over a sudden realization that Jim had unwittingly uncovered a truth: which was, that there was a good deal of the protective "big brother" impulse in his affection for Jim.

"My five hundred mile run on the Limited Mail is vagabondage enough for me," Jim went on, with a wry smile. "Anyhow, I've been thinking it over a lot the last few days, and it just came to me once and for all as we sat here. It's no use, Bob, I'd be leaving—her—"

"Didn't think you'd pull out with me," said Bob laconically after a brief silence punctuated by their careless flipping of the knife into the grass. "Hoped you wouldn't, too. Because, old man, when it comes right down to it Mrs. O'Leary might make a good foster mother for the kid, but she can't take the place of—his mother. That's your job—mother and father, both! No, you're not leg loose, like me, old man!"

Sudden apprehension, an anticipatory fear of loneliness, dimmed Jim's eyes as he grasped Bob's hand, stopping him in the act of throwing the knife, and stammered,

"You, Bob—you're not—thinking of—"

"I'm thinking I want to be—on my way. There's nothing more here I can do. You're leave is up this week-end and you'll be going back to work on Monday's run. I've lived on you all this time, Jim—eaten your food, worn your clothes. I'm a liability and I'm going to liquidate myself by becoming scarce," he finished with a short laugh.

Jim got to his feet with grim determination and stood over Bob, frowning, like a defense advocate before a bar of last appeal.

"Bob Wilson, you've done all the preaching around here for nearly a month, so now I claim the right to crowd in a few words. I've guessed you've been in some big trouble, but I know by your manner, your speech, your—everything—that you stand head and shoulders above the average citizen of this town—that you've been accustomed to the best and not to the meanest of this world's goods. I don't know or care why you choose to drift, but I wish you'd let me be your anchor. I haven't any right to butt into your plans for your own life—but God, Bob, in a little over three short weeks I've come to love you as a brother."

and with eyes that without any foreknowledge on his part were also wet.

"About the—kid—" he began humbly, in a low monotone, avoiding with the instinctive psychology of man to man comforting any direct or influencing look at Jim or any tone of sentimental pleading, "there's this to remember, old man. He was—your wife's happiest desire. She paid a damnably big price for him. Her flesh—her blood—her bones—live on in him. There's too much of her—in him—for you to turn him down, Jim. Taking care of him is the price you'll have to pay to redeem her sacrifice."

It was a queer scene in that little room, hallowed by the ancient sacrifice that had been made by the one now no longer warm with life—with the shabby and unshaven hobo, a wanderer on life's fringes, dominating a homely little everyday tragedy.

Bob quickly lifted the picture from the mantel and held it close to Jim, who made a loving but futile effort to see it through his film of tears.

"Look at this picture, Jim—then look at that baby!" Bob counselled gently, again prompted somehow by an inner fancy that he could not understand himself.

Great quivers shook Jim as he stepped unsteadily to Mrs. O'Leary and, bending over the infant, tried to see its face, which was thus baptized in the clean tears of his father's agony.

With quick, hungry tenderness he lifted the baby into his thin arms, then turned and looked at Bob streamingly.

"Looks—just—like his mother," he sobbed proudly.

A British specialist says the best way to get the vitamins that build up the health and are really nothing except stored up sunlight, is to stay in the sunshine and permit the beams to strike the skin. Now we know why bathers like to lie around on the sands until they turn black. They aren't acquiring sunburn. They're gathering vitamins.—Stockton Record.

Science In His Hat Shop Leads to Great Discovery

By HAYDEN TALBOT, Universal Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Aug. 10.—Two men—one of them by trade a hatter—have made an important discovery in the connection with the mystery of the origin of cancer. While they themselves emphasize the fact that they do not claim to have found a cure for cancer—there is no doubt that their discovery is of incalculable value in the bibliography of cancer research.

The discoverers are Dr. W. E. Gye and Mr. J. E. Barnard, the latter one head of hat shop in Jermyn street. Microscopy is his hobby.

For the past thirty years, so Dr. Gye says, Barnard has given up his spare time to scientific research, just as others devote theirs to golf or the club.

"He found this scientific enthusiasm as a young man, and has kept it up ever since," said Dr. Gye. "I find him an enthusiastic worker, and very few amateurs in science— if I may use the term—have succeeded in reaching his degree of eminence."

An Important Contribution
This important contribution to existing knowledge regarding the origin of cancer, the disease that kills one in every seven persons of more than 50 years of age in the United Kingdom, has been accomplished by the two men with the support of the Medical Research Council.

It claims attention of the strong grounds that its authors are selected exponents of modern research that its technique and conclusions have been considered favorably where criticism has real significance, and that its foundations were truly laid and have stood the test of time.

The discovery is treated in two papers, the first dealing with the aetiology (on demonstration of the causes) of malignant new growths and written by Dr. Gye from the Medical Research Council's Field Laboratories at Mill Hill. The second paper deals with the microscopic examination of filtrable viruses (organic poisoning matter which passes through the filters used to catch bodies for microscopic examination), and is written by Barnard, from the National Institute for Research at Hempstead.

The parasitic theory has until now been approached in a manner which led to no difficulty in refuting the theories advanced, it only because it has never been possible to reproduce a tumor with a culture of any one of the organisms. But the strength of the case against the general antral conception that malignant disease has an extrinsic specific cause has been based upon the view that tumors are the pathological consequence of the simple conjunction of host and parasite. Dr. Gye's discovery indicates the presence of an essential factor, or as he terms it "specific factor," before malignancy occurs.

Features of New Growth.
One of the outstanding features of new growths is their specificity, not only in regard to host but in regard to tissue. The conclusion that these tumors, being caused by living viruses, require for every species a special group of viruses, and for every tissue a special virus is absolutely opposed to any theory which would connect aetiological factors with one external agent, and the influence of irritation, leading to a common cause, and the disease become a particular problem in cell physiology.

Dr. Gye's discovery is the presence of an infective agent hitherto undetected. Malignant new growths, sarcomata and sarcinoma of birds, rodents, dogs and men contain an ultra-microscopic virus which can be cultivated, and injection of the virus does not produce a visible lesion. But when the virus is injected together with virus-free extracts of tumors a malignant new growth is produced.

The extract contains something which Dr. Gye calls "the specific factor," and the argument is that to produce cancer two factors are required, an extrinsic virus which is common in its malignant action to various species, and an intrinsic virus or specific factor, whose action is shown only in the particular species of its production.

Gasoline Lantern is Dependable for Use Around Auto Camp

There are many ways of lighting the camp, but for all around efficiency and convenience the gasoline lantern will best answer the purpose.

The 300 candle power light will illuminate the entire camp and its surroundings so that the camper may cook or even read without straining his eyes. Another advantage of this pressure lamp is that it is economical to use. Under ordinary conditions where the lamp is used only an hour or so each night one filling should last for a week.

It is absolutely safe to use, it cannot be filled while it is burning, or if it accidentally knocked over or dropped it will harm no result. If packed each time after using.

LIKE AMERICAN SCENERY BETTER THAN EUROPEAN

Mrs. Emily Axtell, Americanization instructor here, and Miss Nora Ashfield, assistant superintendent of schools, returned to Richmond yesterday after a summer spent touring Europe.

The educators traveled through Italy, France, Switzerland and the British Isles, but in no place found landscape beauty to surpass the American Rockies, not even barring the Alps, in the opinion of Miss Ashfield.

Belleau Wood in France, where thousands of Americans lost their lives was the only place the American flag was encountered.

Miss Ashfield and Mrs. Axtell attended the international educational conference in Edinburgh, Scotland, and visited Blarney Castle, Ireland, Buckingham and Windsor palaces in England, and the Vatican in Rome.

Miss Ashfield took up her duties immediately upon her return. She said that since July 24, they had been sleeping in berths, except on one occasion.

Sulphur is Best To Clear Skin

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment of disfigurement. A little jar of Rowell's Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.

The woman who entertains well—
THERE'S something indescribably fine about the woman who entertains well. From the cheery appearance of her home to the service she so deftly affords — everything is so natural yet—so charmingly different.
Such splendid hostesses, once very rare and belonging only to the idle classes, are now to be found everywhere. They grace homes in every walk of life—making them happier though the many friends they attract.
Advertisements keep these women ahead of the commonplace. Advertisements tell of the newest and most delightful things. Advertisements announce new customs and practices. They tell what the world approves as correct.
The woman who entertains well must read the advertisements. Not only to keep pace with progress — but to learn how to do so on a limited purse. For advertisements are more than harbinger of style—they are announcements of economies that may be practiced safely.
Read the advertisements — to know what is new, what is correct—and what is economical

"Tiger Love" Is Film of Spanish Bandit's Wooing

"Tiger Love," a new Paramount picture, directed by George Melford and featuring Antonio Moreno and Estelle Taylor, was shown for the first time in Richmond at the Richmond theatre last night.

The story has to do with a romantic young Spanish bandit who falls in love with a daughter of the aristocracy. Hearing of a wedding to the city, the Wildcat (Moreno) goes to steal the costly presents. At the dead of night he comes face to face with Marcheta, played by Estelle Taylor, in her boudoir. Both realize their love and go into each other's arms.

But the girl is forced into an engagement with a hair-brained individual. The father is convinced that a marriage will strengthen the family finances. The Wildcat kidnaps the pair and carries them off to his stronghold in the mountains. Soldiers arrive—the Wildcat is trapped. How does he extricate himself? That is just it—how. That's what makes "Tiger Love" one of the most interesting romantic dramas we've seen in months. You'll agree with us, too! Here's action, thrill, romance, heart-appeal and all packed into a single picture, and what a picture it is. It's a George Melford production. Remember "The Sheik" Melford made that also.

Other features on the same program include "Jonah Jones" a Lloyd Hamilton comedy scream, and "Topics of the Day."

CALLED BEST DRESSED WOMAN IN WORLD, SAYS HUSBAND IS ONLY JUDGE

Mrs. Joseph F. Moran, wife of a wealthy Brooklyn, N. Y., shipbuilder, has been called the "best dressed woman in the world" by newspapers in Paris and London. But Mrs. Moran, who returned from Europe recently, disclaims the honor. She believes in American-made clothes for American women and her extensive wardrobe was acquired not in Paris, but in New York. Mrs. Moran says she dresses only to please her husband and succeeding in that she pleases herself.

THREE DAYS LONG ENOUGH FOR TOUR OF EUROPE IN OPINION OF THIS AVIATOR

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The French aviator, Captain Arrachart, left the Villacoublay airfield early today in an attempt to make a flying tour of Europe in three days. He expects to arrive at Constantinople after a non-stop flight today. His plans call for a flight from Constantinople to Moscow on the second day and from Moscow to Paris on the third day. He is accompanied by an engineer. Captain Arrachart's airplane was seen over Turin, Italy, at 11 o'clock this morning.

YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

Comedy of The Underworld Is Theater Leader

"Paths to Paradise," featuring Betty Compson and Raymond Griffith now at the California theatre, opens on the scene of a gaudy show-up of a group of sightseers through San Francisco's Chinatown. In an underground dance hall we come across Betty Compson as a first-class queen of a gang of counterfeiters. She is in the act of "taking over" Ray Griffith, a likely looking sap, according to her pals. Ray calls in a friend, after they have relieved him of several hundred dollars by a couple of clever tricks; he two of them flash stars and declare the place under arrest.

Next we find Griffith across the street with his partner dividing the money and jewelry handed over as a bribe. Ray's badge, purposely left behind in the dive, tags him as a "San Francisco Gas Meter Inspector."

WHY SUFFER SO?

Too many people suffer lame, aching backs, distressing kidney disorders and rheumatic aches and pains. Often this is due to faulty kidney action and there's danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Don't let weak kidneys wear you out. Use Doan's Pills before it is too late! Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Here is one of many Richmond cases:

Mrs. E. Klein 1812 Nevin Ave., says, "I felt weak and the least work wore me out completely. My kidneys didn't act normally and I had frequent attacks of backache. I used Doan's Pills and they cured me completely."

OVER SIX YEARS LATER, Mrs. Klein said: "Doan's Pills have always helped me when my kidneys have troubled me."

Mrs. Klein is only one of many Richmond people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for DOAN'S PILLS—the same that Mrs. Klein had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all dealers. "When Your Back Is Lame—Remember the Name."

"If I had only known—"

TWO women went out to buy a certain expensive labor-saving device for the home.

One was greatly disappointed when, a few days later, they compared notes. She had bought the same product that many of her friends had owned.

The other woman had secured a greatly improved, new product—costing less, but of much more value.

"If I had only known there was a better one," the first woman said, "I would never have bought this old one."

"I had just read about it in an advertisement," explained the wise buyer.

Every day you miss good news of an improvement in different articles of merchandise—unless you read the advertisements. They tell you of practically every worth-while invention—of every progress from the old to the new.

Read the advertisements—regularly. Know all about the thing you are going to buy before you buy it. It will save you disappointment, money and time.

The better a product is—the sooner you'll see it in an advertisement

SHADE MAY BE MATCHED WITH JIMMIE DUFFY

Providing that negotiations now under way materialize, Dave Shade and Jimmy Duffy, rivals of long standing, will meet at the San Francisco Baseball Park in the feature attraction of an all-star program of fistic events that the New Mission Athletic Club promoters will stage on Labor Day, Sept. 7.

Matchmaker Donn Shields and Promoters Morrison, Higgins and Starr conversed with Duffy and Harold Broom, his manager, for more than two hours yesterday afternoon. An agreement of some kind was finally reached, although the Oaklander did not affix his name to a contract.

CONFERENCE CALLED

Leo P. Flynn, manager of Shade, was called into conference last night just before he departed for Los Angeles with Lou Paluso, who meets "Ace" Hudkins at Vernon tonight, and named Shade's terms which no doubt exceeded the $10,000 mark.

The promoters were anxious to close for Dave's services for Labor Day right then and there, but Flynn explained that he would be unable to sign for the match until he hears from the New York Boxing Commission, which meets this afternoon.

Flynn asserted that the Gotham commission was endeavoring to force Mickey Walker to clash with the Californian at the Polo Grounds in September and that if they decide at their gathering today that Walker must fight Shade, then it would be impossible to sign for a contest here next month with Duffy.

FLYNN WANTS FIGHT

"I would welcome a match with Duffy," Flynn declared just before he left for Los Angeles. "If the New York commission does not reach an agreement today concerning the Walker-Shade match, then I will sign to fight Duffy, providing the purse is to our liking."

Shade and Duffy, if matched, will replace Eddie Hufman and Young Bob Fitzsimmons, who were originally scheduled to collide at the ball park. The promoters were unable to come to terms with Fitzsimmons, after the match had been virtually made. The son of Old Ruby Bob had practically accepted terms and then decided that he wanted more money than he was really worth.

THREE PREVIOUS FIGHTS

Shade and the Oakland Flash have fought three slashing bouts in the past. Jimmy decisively defeated Dave in their first meeting of some three or four years ago. Although their bout of last September was called a draw, Shade really was entitled to the decision. If they meet three weeks hence it will be the first time that the two Californians have come together over four rounds.

Flynn will return from Los Angeles Thursday, at which time he will be ready to announce his plans in detail.

WELLS SHIES FROM MICKIE

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—The ten-round no-decision boxing match between Mickey Walker, world welterweight champion, and Bernondsey Billy Wells, british champion, set for tonight at East Chicago, Ind., was called off last night when it was learned that Wells had departed for New York.

"It was a plain case of run out," declared James Mullen, promoter of the contest, a statement joined in by Charles Harvey, manager of Wells. "I refuse to make an alibi," said Harvey. "Wells was in perfect condition and had no advance information of Wells' intention. The British boxer checked out at his hotel Saturday and took a train for the East."

Mullen refused to name a substitute to meet Walker tomorrow night, and directed that the advance receipts of $20,000 be returned to purchasers.

Tailors Lose To Eureka Nine

A blowup in the seventh inning cost the Schneider Tailors the game with Eureka, at Eureka Sunday.

Elmer Hansen's men were leading 1 to 0 up to the breaking point, when the foggy city clan made a clean sweep with 10 runs.

During the game Greathouse, first baseman for the Tailors got three hits for the slugging honors of the day.

A baseball field meet was held before the game with the local tossers taking most of the honors. Johnny Huzefka won the hunt, run to first base, and home run. Harry Bonham made the most perfect throw to first.

Pullmans Take First Industrial Game

Little difficulty was encountered by Paul Huston's Pullmans in taking the Pacific Manifold and Book-binding company down the line on an 8 to 2 score in the first game of the series for the championship of the Oakland Industrial league, on Sunday.

The game was called in the fifth stanza on account of a time limit, but the local club was given the credit for the victory.

BILL TILDEN DEFEATED BY CALIFORNIAN

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 10.—California had a gala day Sunday at the Detroit tennis club with two of its stars becoming finalists in the western claycourt championships and Cranston Holman, sensational Pacific Coast junior, defeating William T. Tilden, Philadelphia, national champion, whose lame shoulder handicapped his game.

Coming from the east especially for the exhibition, Tilden refused to disappoint the crowd and lost two straight sets to the Leland Stanford star, 7-5, 9-7.

WINS IN DOUBLE

The national champion retrieved himself in doubles, when, aided by the brilliant playing of his partner, Holman, they defeated the national claycourt doubles champions, Harvey Snodgrass and Walter Westbrook, Los Angeles, 3-6, 6-4, 8-6.

Tilden and Holman came from behind in the deciding set when the Los Angeles team was within two points of victory, having five games to one.

SINGLES TODAY

Wesbrook and Snodgrass today will decide the singles championship, both having scored impressive victories today in the semi-finals. Wesbrook winning a five-set match from Kirk Reed, Cleveland, and Snodgrass eliminating Lucien E. Williams, Chicago, former inter-collegiate champion.

Wesbrook was forced to extend himself to defeat the Cleveland player in what proved the hardest fought battle of the week, 11-9, 5-7, 2-6, 6-0, 6-2.

Snodgrass, sixth ranking player of the nation, beat Williams, 6-0, 6-2, 3-6, 6-2.

Williams, playing with Walter T. Hayes, Chicago, won the right to contest with Snodgrass and Wesbrook today for the doubles title by winning their semi-finals match from George, and Ira Reindel of Detroit in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

WON LAST WEEK

Snodgrass and Wesbrook, who last week won the Wisconsin state title by defeating the Chicagoans, became

CRANSTON HOLMAN, ONLY 18, PROMISING CANDIDATE FOR THE DAVIS CUP TEAM

Holman, young Stanford University senior, established himself as one of the most promising candidates for the Davis Cup team of the future by his performance against James Anderson, captain of the Australian Davis Cup team, in the invitation tournament at Sea Bright, N. J. The ruggedly-built Californian carried Anderson to three sets and at the end was twice within a point of leading at 5-3. Anderson was forced to call upon his cunning and resources.

OAKLAND FIGHTS OFF

finalists when Henry Wick, Cleveland and Clifford Marsh, Buffalo, defaulted after entering the semi-finals.

A new women's western claycourt champion was crowned yesterday, when Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Detroit, defeated Miss Mar'ion Leighton, Chicago, defending champion, 5-7, 7-5, 7-5.

Mrs. Johnson and Miss Leighton won the women's doubles title from Miss Lillian Bokker and Mrs. Barbara Duffy of Cleveland, 6-0, 2-6, 6-3.

ALL PHYSICAL AILMENTS ARE TO BE BARRED

SACRAMENTO Aug. 10.—A drastic set of rules intended to bar from the sport ring in California all who are physically or morally unfit were announced today by Walter A. Yarwood, secretary of the State Athletic Commission.

The rules will be printed in booklet form and sent to every boxer and boxing club in the State. Their strict enforcement is pledged by the State commission.

The rules follow:

No one shall present himself for a license who has any physical deformity or any disease of the vital organs, whether acute, subacute or chronic; such as curvature of the spine, absent fingers, recent fractures or valvular heart disease, high blood pressure, recent recoveries from acute illness, skin diseases.

Any boxer presenting himself for a match suffering from any of the following may be disqualified and may even lose his license; wounds or unsightly abrasions or contusions, acute infections (colds, bronchitis, etc.) or infections of any type, signs of disipation, signs of over-training any condition that in the estimation of the examining physician would be detrimental to the boxer, the arena or the boxing game in general.

Any boxer presenting himself for physical examination must show evidence of personal cleanliness, both as to body hygiene and the state of clothing. Failure to conform strictly to this decree is adequate grounds for disqualification.

PHYSICIAN BARRED.

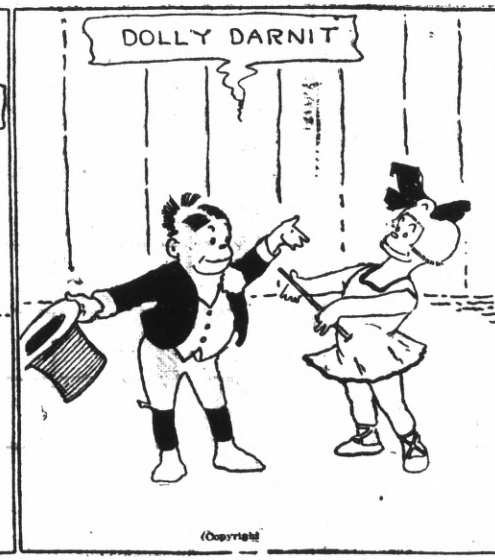

The use during the boxing match of Monsell's solution or any similar drug, compound or concoction for the stopping of hemorrhage in the ring is positively forbidden.

Physicians, save those licensed by the commission, shall not be allowed in the dressingroom of any boxer previous to a match.

The use of drugs, alcoholics or stimulants, either before or during a match, by any boxer, is adequate grounds for revoking license.

Any variation of temperature shall be sufficient cause for disqualification.

NEAR SUICIDE OVER QUARREL

Hasty Shot Misses Heart—Couple Forget Fight and He Will Recover

Loss of one life and blasting of another all but resulted from a little misunderstanding in Richmond Sunday night.

Miss Juanita LaFrance, 24, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weis, of 519 Sixth street, saw her sweetheart, Herbert Van Kuren, 25, a boilermaker of San Francisco, whip out a .25 calibre automatic and shoot himself in the breast.

The shooting took place at the Weis home, following a quarrel between Miss LaFrance and Kuren. Mr. and Mrs. Weis were also witnesses of the shot.

The quarrel was immediately forgotten after the shot had been fired and Van Kuren fell to the floor. Miss LaFrance took him into her arms and showered him with kisses.

Drs. G. M. and J. M. Bumgarner arrived to give medical assistance, and found that the bullet grazed the breast and ploughed its way into the left shoulder. The physicians believe he will recover.

Van Kuren was taken to the Cottage hospital, where at a late hour, last night he had refused to make any statement regarding the cause of the attempt to end his life.

fire district united in asking for four electroliners in each block—or a total of 20 for the district.

City Manager J. A. McVittie explained to members of the council last night that it is understood that the Western States Gas and Electric company will install four electroliners in each block providing that the city enters into a ten-year lighting contract with the company. The cost to the city for each light would be $50, the city manager reported. The total cost a year would be $1,000.

McVittie stated that inasmuch as the light cables cannot have a greater span than 140 feet, it will be necessary to have six poles in each block.

Horne Called On.

When questioned as to the demands of the property owners of the district, Attorney C. D. Horner, representing the petitioners, stated that they would be satisfied to have but four poles installed in each block. All but two of the present wooden poles could thus be eliminated.

City Manager's Policy.

City Manager McVittie said that his recommendation to the council would be to install an electroliner system in any block that has 50 per cent built up with Class A, B or C buildings, and whose street was well paved. McVittie said it would not be feasible to put in electroliners in blocks that have poorly paved streets.

Highway Work Is Making Progress

ANTIOCH, Aug. 10.—Supervisor Richard J. Trembath has been chosen vice-chairman of the committee on highway construction on Sherman Island, which is being furthered by Contra Costa and Sacramento counties.

Imperative need of improved road conditions to meet the opening of the Antioch-Sherman Island bridge in October has prompted united action on the part of the neighboring counties.

With concrete work complete the bridge presents a motor thoroughfare nearly one mile in length. Only the lift span of steel is needed to destroy the barrier to travel to the Delta regions from the Antioch shore.

Shot to Death As He Answers Call

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 10.—Walking out into the night in response to the appeal of a girl who said she was having motor trouble, Chris Karspon, service station proprietor, was shot to death by accomplices of the girl.

Robbery was undoubtedly the motive of the shooting. The gang is believed to have made a haul of several hundred dollars. Some acquaintances of the victim believe that the plot was the outgrowth of a double objective of robbery and satisfying a grudge.

This idea is advanced on account of the fact that Karspon was shot six times, the wielder of the weapon evidently taking no chances and making sure that death was immediate. Karspon owned property in San Francisco. He left a family including a widow and four children aged from six to sixteen years.

"Bargain Corner"

Owner of Valuable Dog Incensed When Animal Runs to Its Death

Crushed beneath the wheels of a San Jose Meat company truck driven by George O'Husted of Oakland, "Duke", valued nine-months old St. Bernard dog, belonging to R. J. Clark, local merchant at 125 Seventh street, was killed shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the corner of Twenty-second street and Macdonald avenue.

The dog, which had been presented to Clark several weeks ago by Berkeley friends who were leaving on an extended tour of Europe, broke the leash that held him and ran beneath the wheels of the truck before Clark could catch him. O'Husted, Carclaims, did not stop after hitting the dog but continued on his way down Macdonald avenue.

Jumping into a machine driven by Herbert Blake, assistant sanitary inspector, Clark pursued O'Husted and overhauled him at Ninth and Macdonald. The driver of the meat company truck is said to have admitted running over the dog but declared that he did not think that he had injured it.

Henry Marfola, proprietor of the Vista Hotel, at Twenty-second and Macdonald, was bitten on the hand when he attempted to drag the injured dog off the street. The dog, its back shattered was shot by police officers and its head sent to the state laboratory at Berkeley by C. R. Blake for examination as to a possible case of rabies.

Clark, owner of the dog, intimated last night that he may institute a suit against the meat company, as the result of the death of the animal.

CONSTRUCTION IS STARTED ON LARGEST TANK

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10. Work was started this morning on the construction of the largest oil storage reservoir in the world, a vast sunken "tank" to contain 2,000,000 barrels of oil, for the Standard Oil company on the section of land acquired last week between Pittsburg and Antioch, south of the Southern Pacific tracks and between the Los Medanos pumping station and the tank farm on the Bonsett ranch.

Bent Bros., Los Angeles contractors now building the million and a half barrel reservoir at the Shell refinery in Martinez, have the contract and the reservoir is to be ready for use in ninety days. To accomplish this seemingly impossible construction job, the contractors on Monday broadcasted a call for every available head of stock and piece of grading machinery in the bay region to be put to work on the great undertaking.

Engineers for the Standard Oil company have applied for permission to run a water pipe line under the county highway near Los Medanos through which water from the San Joaquin river will be pumped to supply the grading camps and for concrete work.

Announcement of this record construction has set at rest the rumors which have been afloat as to the real buyer of the land involved in the transaction last week in which the land was transferred for $100,000 by Mary J. and Catherine Irwin, R. E. Ward and Albert Frederickson to Attorney Mortimer B. Veale of Antioch, known to be acting for corporate interests, the identity of which was not known until today.
